Course Description

Generalist social work practice with micro systems. Knowledge and methods to bring about planned change with individuals and client-identified family systems practice in interpersonal skills. Offered Fall semester. Limited to majors Prerequisite(s): limited to majors or permission of program chair.

Course Purpose

This course emphasizes professional knowledge, values, skills, and cognitive and affective processes required for generalist practice with individuals. In addition, the class gives attention to various interprofessional conceptual frameworks. Some examples of these include such as systems theory, ecological perspective, and the strengths perspective. Finally, students address competencies for the beginning level practitioner necessary for successful intervention with various micro client systems.

Relationship to Other Sequences and Other Courses

SOWK 486 is a practice class focused on teaching skills for effecting changes in individual clients. During a student's time in the social work program, there are three theories of practice courses. Each one focuses on a different level of interaction. First, this course starts with individuals, then SOWK 487 Theories of Practice II concentrates on working with groups. Finally, SOWK 488 looks at working with communities and a macro perspective.

Land Acknowledgement

Heritage University occupies its home on the traditional lands of the Yakama People. These ancestral homelands are the Yakama, Palouse, Pisuouse, Wenatshapam, Klikatat, Klinquit, Kow- was-say-ee, Li-ay-was, Skin-pah, Wish-ham, Shyiks, Ochechotes, Kah-milt-pa, and Se-ap-cat, who today are represented by the Confederated Tribes and Bands of the Yakama Nation [TREATY OF 1855] and, whose relationship with this land continues to this day. Heritage University, grounded in the vision of the two Yakama women founders, respects Indigenous peoples as traditional guardians of the lands and the enduring relationship that exists between Indigenous peoples and their traditional territories. We offer gratitude for the land itself, for those who have stewarded it for generations, and for the opportunity to study, learn, work, and be in community on this land. We acknowledge that our university's history, like many others, is fundamentally tied to the first colonial developments in the Yakima Valley. Finally, we respectfully acknowledge and honor past, present, and future Indigenous students who will journey through this home called Heritage University.

This course is based out of the Tri-Cities Campus. The Tri-Cities campus at Columbia Basin College is on the ancestral homelands of the Cayuse, Umatilla, Walla Walla, Yakama, and Palouse peoples. I desire to also honor and acknowledge them as well.

Social Work Program Goals and Objectives

The school of social work program's mission derives from the goals of our program. Those goals are as follows:

1. The Social Work Program provides quality educational preparation for beginning generalist social work practice with individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.
2. The Social Work Program focuses on the specific needs of the multicultural, diverse populations in the rural and urban regions of the Northwest.
3. The Social Work Program prepares students academically to pursue graduate-level education.

Social Work Competencies, Relationship to University Goals, and Assessment Methods

In the Educational Policy and Accreditation Standards, the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE, 2022) defines competence as "the ability to integrate and apply social work knowledge, values, skills, and cognitive and affective processes to practice situations in a culturally responsive, purposeful, intentional, and professional manner to promote human and community well-being" (p. 7). Competence is "informed by knowledge, values, skills, and cognitive and affective processes that include the social worker's critical thinking, affective reactions, and exercise of judgment in regard to unique practice situations" (p. 7).

The nine competencies identified in the 2022 EPAS are:

1. Demonstrate Ethical and Professional Behavior
2. Advance Human Rights and Social, Racial, Economic, and Environmental Justice
3. Engage Anti-Racism, Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (ADEI) in Practice
4. Engage in Practice-Informed Research and Research-Informed Practice
5. Engage in Policy Practice
6. Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
7. Assess Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
8. Intervene with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities
9. Evaluate Practice with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Heritage's School of Social Work developed the curriculum with competencies as outcomes. Each core course allows students to demonstrate specific competencies through a key assignment. The content of the course also introduces and develops related competencies and behaviors. Students who successfully complete this course will have demonstrated the competencies listed in the table below.

In addition, the key assignments in each course relate to the university's student learning outcomes.

1. Knowledge of the Physical World and Human Cultures
2. Intellectual and Practical Skills
3. Personal and Social Responsibility
4. Integrative and Applied Learning

Course Assignments Descriptions

Each assignment is described by some meta-information, a description of the purpose, the specific tasks students are expected to complete, and the criteria used to assess the assignment.

Assignment 01: Class Engagement and Attendance

- Meta: Points 50 pts (12.5% of final grade); Deadline Each week during the in-person session; Completion via attendance taken by instructor.
- Purpose: This class, being a practice class, has a crucial participatory aspect. Assigning points to this incentivizes students to be present and on time.
- Task: Be present for the weekly class session. Students should prepare for class by having read the relevant text material. Preparedness facilitates participation in an informed yet informal conversation related to the required reading. Students should be willing to engage in practice activities during the class session. If you cannot attend class, you can be excused by contacting the instructor. If you cannot attend in person, the session is recorded and can be viewed after. For week 14, discussion forums must be completed for points due to an extended Thanksgiving holiday break.
- Success: Students will be present, on time, or have contacted the instructor for the class session.

Assignment 02: Chapter Reading Quizzes

- Meta: Points 50 pts (12.5% of final grade); Deadline 5:30 PM before class each week where there is assigned reading from the Hepworth et al. (2022) text; Completion via My Heritage Assignments
- Purpose: Students gain an added incentive to read and be prepared for class.
- Task: During the semester, the instructor selects 100 questions about the required reading, making each question worth 0.5 points.

Success: Students correctly answer the questions in the quiz. Students are encouraged to discuss questions they got wrong in class to facilitate growth. Students receive feedback about the completed quiz and can see what they missed after the assignment deadline.

Assignment 03: Theory and Practice Integrative Paper

Meta: Points 100 pts (25% of final grade); Deadline Friday 10/07/22 at 11:55 PM; Completion via My Heritage Assignments as an uploaded paper.

Purpose: Students show the integration of theories of practice to their real-world implementation through the assigned Theory and Practice Integrative Paper. Students work with a partner to describe an interprofessional conceptual framework, a fictional client, and the implementation of direct practice with a client.

Task: Working in groups of two, students will author a paper describing a theory of practice and how a practitioner would implement it working with an individual client. Students may choose any interprofessional conceptual framework related to social work that they would like to discuss. Some major examples of this include systems theory, ecological perspective, strengths perspective, feminist perspective, developmental theories, or any other theories described in human behavior and the social environment. Students should approach this paper creatively including the following minimum parts:

- APA formatting in strong academic writing (e.g., tone, word choice, writing perspective), paper style (paper sections, headers and footers, page layout, and spacing), and citations (in-text citation and reference list)
- Description of the theory examined using peer-reviewed academic journal articles (must use both in-text citations and a reference list).
- Discussion of a fictional client and their circumstances.
- Application of the theory to direct practice actions a clinician would use.

Success: Successful papers are evaluated using the APA Research Paper Rubric which includes the assessment of the paper content, APA formatting, spelling, grammar, timeliness, and length. Each paper should be between 1,250 and 1,500 words in length. Feedback from the instructor will be completed by no later than mid-term grades due by the faculty on 10/19/22 at 5:00 PM.

Assignment 04: Interviewing Skills Video Role-Play and Reflection Paper

Worth 200 points, or 50% of the student's final grade, the assignment has two parts, each worth 100 points. The Interviewing Skills Video Role-Play serves as a key assignment¹ for the social work program. This assignment allows you to view yourself in the role of a social worker conducting an interview. The Interviewing Skills Reflection Paper provides a space to self-critique your engagement and interviewing skills.

¹ Heritage University's social work program selects assignments across the curriculum for students to demonstrate each of the practice behaviors defined by the CSWE to act as key assignments. These assignments are submitted to Heritage's online portfolio, Anthology Portfolio, and given to all students at each site using the same grading rubric. Student scores help provide data for faculty to self-evaluate the program.

Assignment 04a: Interviewing Skills Video Role-Play

- Meta: Points 100 pts (25% of student's final grade); Deadline Friday 11/18/22 by 11:55 PM; Completion Students submit through Anthology Portfolio (My Heritage Assignments).
- Purpose: The Interviewing Skills Video Role-Play supports students in confirming the acquisition of interviewing skills (application of person in the environment, empathetic responding, reflective responding, and other interpersonal skills).
- Task: Students will work with a partner to record a 10 to 15-minute interview. The interview should be a role-play of an initial meeting between a social worker and a fictional client. Students have the freedom to develop their settings for the interview. This assignment is designed to offer the student the opportunity to demonstrate engagement, the sixth competency described by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE). The following is the language used in the 2022 education and policy standards (EPAS):

Competency 6: Engage with Individuals, Families, Groups, Organizations, and Communities

Social workers understand that engagement is an ongoing component of the dynamic and interactive process of social work practice with and on behalf of individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities.

Social workers value the importance of human relationships. Social workers understand theories of human behavior and person-in-environment and critically evaluate and apply this knowledge to facilitate engagement with clients and constituencies, including individuals, families, groups, organizations, and communities. Social workers are self-reflective and understand how bias, power, and privilege as well as their personal values and personal experiences may affect their ability to engage effectively with diverse clients and constituencies. Social workers use the principles of interprofessional collaboration to facilitate engagement with clients, constituencies, and other professionals as appropriate.

Social workers:

- a. apply knowledge of human behavior and person-in-environment, as well as interprofessional conceptual frameworks, to engage with clients and constituencies; and
- b. use empathy, reflection, and interpersonal skills to engage in culturally responsive practice with clients and constituencies. (p. 11)

The following are the instructions for this assignment:

- Students will record a 15 to 20-minute role-play with a classmate. To complete this, students should use a tripod or stable surface that allows them to record the role-play with a cell phone or other recording device.

- Each student's role-play will have three parts (1) introduce the role-play setting, (2) complete the client interview using listening and attending skills discussed and practiced in class, and (3) de-brief the role-play with your partner.
- The intention is to demonstrate your ability to use attentive listening, open-ended questions, empathetic responding, and other skills. The focus is not on solving the person's problem or difficulties.
- Each of the three parts can be done with the camera rolling. During the debrief with your partner, discuss (a) the things that you said/did that helped the other person feel comfortable and open up, (b) the things that you could have improved, and (c) any suggestions or feedback from your partner.
- After completing the first interview, switch roles and do another 15 to 20-minute role play following the same format.
- Each student should upload their final video of them as the interviewer to Anthology Portfolio for the instructor's assessment.
- Your video may be too large to upload to Anthology Portfolio and might need to be compressed. To do this, an instruction document is provided that gives step-by-step directions with screenshots for how to reduce the file size of your video.

Success: Each student will submit a video of themselves that demonstrates their use of interviewing skills. Grades will be based on the Engagement Practice Behaviors Rubric, which evaluates students based on the CSWE competency six. In addition, the Engagement and Micro Skills Role-Play Rubric evaluates students regarding the actual role-play video looking at content, organization, and skills. Feedback from the instructor will be completed no later than final Grades which are due Wednesday 12/14/22 at 5:00 PM.

Assignment 04b: Interviewing Skills Reflective Paper

Meta: Points 100 pts (25% of student's final grade); Deadline Friday 12/02/22 at 11:55 PM; Submission via Assignments section of My Heritage

Purpose: The Interviewing skills Video Role-Play Reflective Paper offers students a chance to reflect on the experience of their role-play after having watched themselves using a critical eye.

Task: After students have completed their role-play and had an opportunity to review their performance, each student will individually author a reflective paper describing their experience and what they learned. The paper should be between 500 and 750 words in length, formatted using the APA 7th edition style guide. Abstracts are optional, and if your paper does not cite any sources, there is no need for a reference page. The following should be included in your paper:

- Areas of Strengths: The paper should discuss your areas of strength demonstrated in the role-play. For example, "I used attentive body language because I leaned in slightly and maintained eye contact." Be specific about what went well. Include quotes from either party.
- Areas for Improvement: The paper should also discuss your areas for improvement. Again, be specific and use concrete language. State how you will work on these skills.

Success: Students will submit a paper demonstrating their ability to self-reflect and write using strong academic writing skills. Grades are assigned based on the Reflective Paper Rubric. Feedback will be provided with final grades which are due by the instructor no later than 12/14/22 at 5:00 PM.

Assignment 5: Extra Credit Assignment Options

The faculty for this course offers students two different opportunities for extra credit. The first is a smaller assignment for evaluating your own communication style and use of empathetic conversation through a reflective paper. The second is a more intensive research paper looking into evidence-based assessment practices or generalist practice intervention for social workers. These assignments are extra credit and not mandatory.

Assignment 5a: [Extra Credit] Empathetic Communication Self-Evaluation Reflective Paper

- Meta: Points 25 pts (5% of total grade in extra credit); Deadline Sunday 11/27/22 by 11:55 PM; Completion via My Heritage Assignments as a file upload.
- Purpose: The Empathetic Communication Self-Evaluation Reflective Paper provides an avenue for students to self-reflect regarding their communication style and the amount of empathetic communication they participate in.
- Task: Students will write a reflective paper that is 500 to 750 words in length. They will consider their use of empathic language in their daily life and how they can be more empathic.
- Report on what your communication patterns are.
 - Discuss what empathetic communication patterns look like.
 - Plan for what you could do to improve your empathetic communication.
- Success: Students will submit a paper demonstrating strong academic writing and self-reflective skills. Papers are graded according to the Reflective Paper Rubric. Feedback will be provided with final grades which are due by the instructor no later than 12/14/22 at 5:00 PM.

Assignment 5b: [Extra Credit] Evidence-Based Practice for Assessments or Generalist Practice

- Meta: Points 50 pts (10% of total grade in extra credit); Deadline Sunday 11/27/22 by 11:55 PM; Completion via My Heritage Assignments as a file upload.
- Purpose: The Evidence-Based Practice for Assessments or Generalist Practice Paper allows students to dive into the literature on social work best practices for engaging with individuals. This task allows for students to demonstrate knowledge of practice behaviors they will need as future social workers.
- Task: This paper is a review of an evidence-based assessment practice or generalist practice intervention for social workers. The paper should be written in APA format both regarding the use of strong academic writing along with proper formatting. The paper will include an introduction, history of the given assessment or intervention, description of the implementation of the intervention, and strengths and limitations of either the research or the intervention itself. The paper should be approximately 1,250 to 1,500 words in length. An abstract is not necessary for this paper but may be included.
- Success: Students will submit a paper that demonstrates academic skills of describing research found in peer-reviewed journal articles. They will be able to demonstrate scientific writing skills. Grades will be assessed using the APA Research Paper Rubric. Feedback will be provided with final grades which are due by the instructor no later than 12/14/22 at 5:00 PM.

Course Guidelines and Expectations

Description of course expectations

Students are expected to engage during class sessions, having come having completed the reading for the week. Because this is a practice class, students are encouraged to bring a sense of experimentation and willingness to try to the class environment.

Description of Assignment Types

Participation and engagement in this course are the most significant aspect of this class. The class format includes lectures, whole group discussions, small group discussions, modeling skills, and practicing skills. There are reading quizzes to ensure comprehension. A research paper is completed with a group to assess strong academic writing and introduces students to the APA style. A role-playing video is used to rate specific skill implementation. The extra credit assignment options include another reflective paper and/or a research paper.

Designated Style

Writing for this course is to be done using the American Psychological Association (APA) style guide. While not required for this course, their seventh edition style guide is listed as a recommended supplemental textbook for students.

Appendices

A. APA Research Paper Rubric
